MEMORANDUM

TO: Attorneys in Tillman v Commercial Credit (09)
No. 360A06

FROM: Christie Speir Cameron, Clerk
Supreme Court of North Carolina

SUBJECT: January 2007 Calendar and Oral Arguments

I am enclosing the calendar to be called for argument during the aforementioned week. The above-mentioned case will be argued on 01/10/2007. The sequence of your case is as shown on the calendar. The Court will take a fifteen minute break after the second case is argued.

In order to appear for argument or to have your name in the final opinion, you must:

- (1) have signed your party's brief in this Court, and
- (2) acknowledge receipt of this calendar in writing, specifying who will be present for argument.

Your early attention to these items will be appreciated. Additionally, if yours is not a pauper case, all printing fees and any required bonds must be settled prior to argument.

One-half hour is the maximum time allowed per side for argument, and must be divided by agreement among multiple attorneys or parties on a side. If there is more than one party sharing your 30 minutes, please notify the Clerk prior to argument as to how you would like to divide your time.

Finally, appropriate dress and behavior is expected by the Court of both the attorney and his or her guests. No food or drink is allowed in the Courtroom.

Should questions arise and, as always, if we can be of assistance, please contact me.
